

Questions to Help You Give and Receive Feedback

The following questions from Jim Lundy will boost your ability to effectively give and receive feedback. Great communication depends not only on what you say but how you say it!

Questions for Giving Constructive Feedback and Suggestions

- "Would you be interested in discussing how...?"
- "May I share a few thoughts (feelings) with you about...?"
- "How do you feel about ...?"
- "Would you be interested in the way I feel about ...?"
- "Do you have any question (concern) about ...?"
- "Are you aware that ...?"
- "Would you like some input (feedback) about ...?"
- "Is this a good time to ask you about ...?"
- "Do you have a few minutes to discuss ...?"
- "Would you like for me to elaborate on ...?"
- "Does this information seem...?"
- "Am I making sense about ...?"
- "Has anyone else expressed similar thoughts about ...?"
- "Do you have any idea why ...?"
- "Have you considered ...?"
- "Do you think it might help if ...?"
- "Would you prefer that I (or that I not) ...?"
- "Is it possible that ...?"
- "Have I said something that may have caused you to ...?"
- "Am I sensing that you feel ...?"

Questions for Receiving Feedback and Suggestions

- "Would you share your feelings with me about ...?"
- "May I get your ideas on ...?"
- "Would you mind letting me know how ...?"
- "Are you saying that ...?"
- "Do I understand that the point is ...?"
- "Could you help me understand ...?"
- "Is there anything else that ...?"
- "Do you think it would help if I ...?"
- "Would you prefer that I (or that I not) ...?"
- "Do you have any particular suggestions regarding ...?"
- "Is it likely that ...?"
- "Do you think that may be because I ...?"
- "How do you think you (he, she, they) would feel about ...?"
- "Would I sound defensive if I said (asked) ...?"

